Intensive Meditation Day (6 hours) or White Tantra Day

The White Tantra day will be held in London in January 2024 (date tbc). The meditation day will be held in London in December 2023 (date tbc)

Optional: 5 Revision evening sessions

Five 1.5 hour online monthly sessions to support the student with homework

Optional: 3 Specialist workshops

Three additional 2.5 hour online specialist workshops will be held during February-June 2024. These workshops are organised in partnership with the Guru Ram Das Project, a UK Yoga charity devoted to sharing the technology of Kundalini Yoga to support the well-being of vulnerable people in our communities, including mental health users, people recovering from addictions, the elderly and the youth. The workshops will be facilitated by specialist teachers and professionals, including Harvard Professor Dr. Sat Bir Singh, a worldwide leading researcher in the science of Yoga. Teacher Training participants will be able to join these additional sessions through a small donation to the GRDP charity.

Ashram Experience (details)

A component of the level 1 training is the attendance of a 5 day residential retreat in Quinta do Rajo, Portugal.

What is it?

The experience will consist of daily Sadhana and afternoon Yoga Practicum, along with lectures and open discussions of the teachings. You will immerse yourself in the Yogic lifestyle; including the spirit of community/holistic living, Yogic diet, seva (Karma yoga - lending a helping hand with cooking, cleaning etc, important aspects of community living.). The Ashram is in a natural environment and aims to be eco-friendly based on sustainability principles

Is it open to others?

In addition to enrolled trainees, the ashram experience is only open to family members and/or baby-sitters; advance notice needs to be given. If someone you know wishes to have a retreat in a yogi setting then they can contact the Ashram to find out about our Ashram Retreat program.

Dates

Dates for the Ashram Experience are listed on the Quinta do Rajo website and trainees will book their place independently via the site during the training. There are plenty of opportunities and it is recommended to attend after the 9th weekend module in the UK.

Online Option: Since January 2020 the Ashram Experience is also offered online via Zoom. It comprises morning lectures by the school director Shiv Charan Singh and additional afternoon activities with the Karam Kriya School trainers.

Important Note: Teaching fees for the Ashram Experience are paid when booking a place. Travel expenses, food and accommodation are not included in any course fees, so trainees are expected to organise and pay them separately.

Equal Opportunities Policy

While honouring a policy of non-discrimination on grounds of gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, disability or ethnicity the Karam Kriya School reserves the right to refuse entry to any students on grounds of general or medical unsuitability and to refuse continuation of the course as a consequence of inappropriate or discriminatory behaviour.

Entrance & Completion Criteria

There are no concrete requirements for entry; however, if the student has little or no experience of Kundalini Yoga then entry will be based on a conversation or interview with the course organiser. Students must satisfy certain criteria for certification on completion of the course, including:

Fees:

Full payment of course fees by the 8th weekend.

Attendance:

Students must attend all the teaching sessions including the full Ashram Experience. Exceptional or special circumstances may result in a student completing the course by attendance at future KY teacher training programmes. Attendance at a minimum of 10 sadhanas on the training days and the sadhanas during the Ashram Experience.

Note: maximum length of training to receive certification is 18 months and 2 years from the start date – which provides the opportunity to catch up on missed weekends in the first year and to complete course requirements.

White Tantric Yoga or equivalent Meditation Day:

In addition to the course criteria described below, the student is required to attend one day of White Tantric Yoga (in any country) or an equivalent one-day (6 hours minimum) meditation, taught by a KRI certified instructor and approved by the Lead Trainer.

Additional Classes:

Students must record attendance at a minimum of 20 KY classes during the training period, independent of Yoga on the course.

Exam:

Pass a satisfactory grade in the written or home exam.

Coursework:

- Complete a 40-day meditation and keep a journal of the experience and progress
- Complete a 40-day vegetarian diet – with the exception of a medical condition
- Design two separate course curricula

Essential Reading:

The Aquarian Teacher, International Kundalini Yoga Teacher Training Level One Instructor Manual - provided on the course.

The Student Handbook with general guidelines, homework and certification requirements

On satisfaction of these criteria by the completion deadline the student will obtain the KRI Level I Kundalini Yoga Instructors Certificate for teaching Kundalini Yoga as taught by Yogi Bhajan. This course is approved by the Kundalini Research Institute (KRI) and qualifies the teacher for registration as a member of the national Kundalini Yoga Teachers Association (KYTA UK) and the International Kundalini Yoga Teachers Association (IKYTA), which include internet listings and other professional benefits.
